Dear Allen:

The next meeting of the Council's Board of Directors has now been set definitely for Monday, February 16, at 5:30 here at the Council, continuing through dinner and afterwards.

Before the meeting, I shall send you a memorandum giving the views of the Committee on Studies with respect to the program aspects of the Policy Committee's Report, and the views of the Finance and Budget Committee with respect to the financial aspects. Since the purpose of this meeting is to arrive at definite decisions on the Council's future activities and means of financing them, it will be an important one, and I hope you will be able to come.

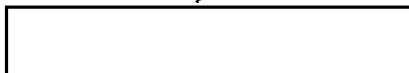

Very sincerely,

George S. Franklin, Jr.
